2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The accompanying interim financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the Standard of Accounting for Interim Financial Reporting issued by the Saudi Organization for Certified Public Accountants ("SOCPA"). The following is a summary of significant accounting policies applied by the Company:

Accounting convention

The interim financial statements are prepared under the historical cost convention.

Use of estimates

The preparation of interim financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires the use of estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the interim financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Although these estimates are based on management's best knowledge of current events and actions, actual results ultimately may differ from those estimates.

Revenue recognition

For international markets, all products are sold to the marketers, while for local markets (Saudi Arabia and GCC countries) the products are sold through the Company. Upon delivery to the marketers, sales are recorded at provisional sales prices that are later adjusted based upon actual selling prices received by the marketers from third parties, after deducting the costs of shipping and marketing fees etc. Adjustments are made, as they become known to the Company. Sales in local markets are recognized upon delivery of products to customers.

Expenses

Selling and distribution expenses principally comprise of costs incurred in the distribution and sale of the Company's products. All other expenses are classified as general and administrative expenses.

General and administrative expenses include direct and indirect costs not specifically part of production costs as required under generally accepted accounting principles. Allocations between general and administrative expenses and production costs, when required, are made on a consistent basis.

(SAUDI JOINT STOCK COMPANY)

FOR THE THREE MONTHS AND SIX MONTHS ENDED JUNE 30, 2014
(All amounts in Saudi Riyals thousands unless otherwise stated)

Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost or net realizable value. Cost is determined for work in progress and finished goods, on a weighted average cost basis and includes cost of materials, labor and an appropriate proportion of direct overheads. All other inventories are valued on a weighted average cost basis.

Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include cash and bank balances, demand deposits and highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less.

Trade receivables

Trade receivables are carried at their original amount less provision made for doubtful debts. An allowance for doubtful debts is established when there is significant doubt that the Company will be able to collect all amounts due according to the original terms of trade receivables.

Property, plants and equipment

Property, plants and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation. Expenditure on maintenance and repairs is expensed, while expenditure for betterment is capitalized. Depreciation is provided over the estimated useful lives of the applicable assets using the straight-line method. The estimated useful lives of the assets are as follows:

	Years
Plants	20
Capital spare parts	20
Buildings	33
Machinery and equipment	10
Furniture, fixtures and office equipment	3 – 8
Catalysts	2 – 8
Laboratory and safety equipment	5
Vehicles and trucks	4 – 10
Leasehold improvements	10

Capital spare parts that are considered essential to ensure continuous plant operation, are classified under property, plants and equipment, and are depreciated using the straight line method in accordance with applicable rates. Spare parts are capitalized if they are not readily available in the market or unavailable, and their manufacturing requires an extended time to complete.

Intangible assets

Intangible assets comprise of establishment costs, listing costs and expenses incurred prior to commencement of commercially viable production which is expected to provide benefits in future periods. These costs also include plants testing and commissioning costs net off any proceeds from sale of off-spec production during the testing phase. Intangible assets are amortized over a period not exceeding seven years.

Planned turnaround costs are deferred and amortized over the period until the date of the next planned turnaround. Should an unexpected turnaround occur prior to the previously envisaged date of planned turnaround, then the previously unamortized deferred costs are immediately expensed and the new turnaround costs are amortized over the period likely to benefit from such costs.

Other non-current assets

Other non-current assets comprise mainly of the share purchase cost, which under the Employee Share Ownership Program (ESOP) will be repaid to the Company over a period of time by the employees eligible for ESOP. The Company at no point will become the legal owner of these shares.

Investments in subsidiaries

A subsidiary is an enterprise that is controlled by the Company by governing the financial and operating policies.

Available for sale investments

Investments in financial instruments are classified according to Company's intent with respect to these securities. Investments in discretionary portfolios and marketable securities classified as available for sale are stated at fair value and unrealized gains or losses thereon are included in the stockholders' equity. The carrying amount of such investment is reduced to recognize any impairment in the value of the individual investment.

Impairment

At each balance sheet date, the Company reviews the carrying amounts of its non-current assets to determine whether there is any indication that those assets have suffered an impairment loss. If any such indication exists, the recoverable amount of the asset is estimated in order to determine the extent of the impairment loss (if any). Where it is not possible to estimate the recoverable amount of an individual asset, the Company estimates the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit to which the asset belongs.

If the recoverable amount of an asset (or cash-generating unit) is estimated to be less than its carrying amount, the carrying amount of the asset (or cash-generating unit) is reduced to its recoverable amount. Impairment losses are recognized as an expense immediately.

Where an impairment loss subsequently reverses, the carrying amount of the asset (or cash-generating unit) is increased to the revised estimate of its recoverable amount so that the increased carrying amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined had no impairment loss been recognized for the asset (or cash-generating unit) in prior years. A reversal of an impairment loss is recognized as income immediately.

Accounts payable and accruals

Liabilities are recognized for amounts to be paid in the future for goods when risks and rewards attributable to goods are transferred to the Company or services are received, whether or not billed to the Company.

Provision for obligations

A provision is recognized in the interim financial statements when the Company has a legal or constructive obligation as a result of a past event, it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation.

Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs directly attributable to cost of projects under construction are added to the cost of the project until such time as the project is ready for its intended use. Investment income earned on temporary investments of specific borrowings pending their expenditure on the project under construction is deducted from the borrowing costs eligible for capitalization.

Costs of the unallocated houses are capitalized and depreciated. Down payments and installments of purchase price received from the eligible employees' are adjusted against non-current assets. The Company is subject to the Regulations of the Department of Zakat and Income Tax ("DZIT") in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia. Zakat and income tax are provided on an accruals basis and charged to retained earnings. The zakat charge is computed on the Saudi stockholders' share in the zakat base. Income tax is computed on the foreign stockholders' share in the adjusted net income. Any difference in the estimate is recorded when the final assessment is approved, at which time the provision is cleared.
