Accounting Estimates

The preparation of consolidated financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles requires the use of estimates and judgments which might affect the valuation of recorded assets, liabilities and the disclosure of contingencies in the notes to the consolidated financial statements at the balance sheet date and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Although these estimates are based on the best information available to the management at the date of issuing the consolidated financial statements, the actual end results might differ from those estimates.

Accounting estimates are recognized in the year in which the estimate is revised if the revision affects only that year, or in the year of revision and future years if the revision affects both current and future years. The significant items of estimation uncertainty and critical adjustments in applying accounting policies that have the most significant effect on the amounts recognized in the consolidated financial statements are as follows:

- estimated useful economic lives and residual values of property, plant and equipment
- estimated costs of long term contracts
- provisions for doubtful debts
- provisions and accruals
- provisions for slow moving inventory

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include cash on hand, balances and deposits with banks, and all highly liquid investments with maturity of three months or less from their acquisition date.

Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable is stated net of provisions. Provision is made for accounts receivable where recovery is considered doubtful by the management.

Employee Home Ownership Program

The Company has a home ownership program that offers home ownership opportunities for its Saudi employees. The Company provides interest-free housing loans for eligible employees to purchase or construct their own residential units. Such loans are repayable in installments over a maximum period of 15 years and are secured by mortgages over property purchases. The installments repayable within one year are classified as other receivables under current assets

Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost or net realizable value.

Cost is determined as follows:

- Raw materials, spare parts and catalysts purchasing cost on the weighted average basis.
- Work in progress & finished goods cost of direct materials, labor and attributable overheads based on a normal level of activity

Net realizable value is selling price less costs to sell.

Property, Plant and Equipment

Property, plant and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation except the platinum catalyst, which is stated at cost. Expenditure on maintenance and repairs is expensed, while expenditure for betterment is capitalized. Depreciation is provided over the estimated useful lives of the applicable assets using the straight line method and residual values. Assets sold or otherwise disposed of and the related accumulated depreciation is removed from the accounts at the time of disposal. The estimated operational useful lives are as follows:

Projects Under Construction

Projects under construction are accounted for at cost until the asset is ready for its intended use, thereafter they are capitalized in the relevant assets categories. Projects under construction include the cost of contractors, materials, services, borrowing costs, salaries and other direct costs and overheads allocated on a systematic basis. Projects under construction are not depreciated.

Turnaround Costs

Planned turnaround costs are deferred and amortized over the period until the next planned turnaround. Should unplanned turnaround costs occur prior to the previously envisaged date of a planned turnaround, then the previously unamortized turnaround costs are immediately expensed and the new turnaround costs are deferred and amortized over the period likely to benefit from such costs. The amortization is charged to cost of sales in the consolidated statement of income.

Borrowings and Borrowings Costs

Borrowings are recognized at the proceeds received less transaction costs (deferred charges – see below). Borrowings are classified as current liabilities unless the Group has an unconditional right to defer settlement of the liability for at least 12 months after the balance sheet date.

Borrowings costs that are directly attributable to the construction of an asset are capitalized up to the stage when substantially all the activities necessary to prepare the qualifying asset for its intended use are completed, and thereafter, are charged to the consolidated statement of income.

Deferred charges comprise agency and upfront fees on term loans and are amortized over the period of the related loans using the effective rate method. The amortization is capitalized in the cost of the plant under construction, until the project is ready for its intended use, and thereafter, is charged to the consolidated statement of income.

Investment in Jointly Controlled Ventures

A joint venture is a contractual arrangement whereby the Group and other parties undertake an economic activity that is subject to joint control, i.e. the strategic financial and operating policies and decisions relating to the activities require the unanimous consent of the parties sharing control. Joint venture arrangements that involve the establishment of a separate entity in which each party has an interest are referred to as jointly controlled ventures. The Group's share in the jointly controlled ventures is accounted for under the equity method whereby the Group's share in the jointly controlled ventures is carried in the consolidated balance sheet at cost as adjusted by post-incorporation changes in the Group's share in the net assets of the jointly controlled ventures, less impairment in the value of the investment, if any. The Group's share in the results of jointly controlled ventures is accounted for under the equity method

Impairment of Non-Current Assets

At each balance sheet date, the carrying amounts of non-current assets are reviewed to determine whether there is any indication that those assets have suffered an impairment loss. If any such indication exists, the recoverable amount of the assets is estimated in order to determine the extent of the impairment loss. Where it is not possible to estimate the recoverable amount of an individual asset, the Group estimates the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit to which the asset belongs.

If the recoverable amount of an asset or cash-generating unit is estimated to be less than its carrying amount, the carrying amount of the asset or cash-generating unit is reduced to its recoverable amount. Impairment loss is recognized as an expense in the consolidated statement of income immediately.

Where an impairment loss subsequently reverses, the carrying amount of the asset or cash-generating unit is increased to the revised estimate of its recoverable amount, but the increased carrying amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined, had no impairment loss been recognized for the asset or cash-generating unit in prior years. A reversal of an impairment loss is recognized as income immediately in the consolidated statement of income.

Accounts payable and accruals

Liabilities are recognized for amounts to be paid in the future for goods or services received or when the risks and rewards of associated with the goods are transferred to the Group, whether claimed by the suppliers or not.
