MANAGER COMMENTARY

Global equity markets made further gains in February on growing optimism over US-China trade talks and also helped by expectations of a pause in rate hikes by the Fed. However, the Saudi market was down 0.8% during the month on some profit booking after stellar gains in January and also impacted by reduced buying from FIIs. The Banks declined 1.2% while the Materials sector gained 0.3%. Key losers include Capital Goods (-6.6%), Food & Staples Retailing (-3.7%), Food & Beverages (-2.8%), Retailing (-2.2%), Health Care (-0.5%) and Real Estate (-0.4%). On the other hand, Consumer Services (+3.3%), Diversified Financials (+1.7%), Telecom (+1.2%) and Transportation (+0.7%) closed higher. The fund declined 0.56% for the month compared with the benchmark which declined 0.47%. As we move ahead in 2019, we expect the performance of the domestic market to improve over the medium to long term, supported by expected expansionary budget and foreign inflows attached to the inclusion in the FTSE and MSCI emerging indices.
