Revenue falls 6% YoY, affected by Dhahran Mall's lease expiry

Arabian Centers Co. (Cenomi)'s revenue fell 6% YoY in 3Q25, mainly due to reduced contribution from the Dhahran Mall as its first phase was handed over in February 2025. However, excluding Dhahran Mall, revenue grew c. 3% YoY, amid ~4% YoY rise in footfall to 32.3mn visitors.

Net profit rises sharply, driven by insurance claim settlement

Despite decline in revenue, net profit increased sharply by 52% YoY in 3Q25, mainly driven by the final settlement of insurance claim on the fire outbreak at Dhahran Mall, which boosted other operating income to SAR 253mn. A decrease in impairment loss on account receivables by 37.8% YoY also aided in net profit growth.

U Capital View

We remain optimistic about Cenomi's growth prospects, considering its existing diverse portfolio of malls, which continue to enjoy high occupancy, and its strategic expansion plan. Hence, we maintain our target price of SAR 26.0/share on the stock with a Buy rating, considering upside from the current levels.
