 - 1) the name and commercial registration number of the issuer,
 - 2) the securities that are the subject of the relevant application for registration and offer and their value, type and class;
 - 3) the addresses and locations where the public may obtain the prospectus or the shareholders' circular;
 - 4) the date of publication of the prospectus or the shareholders' circular;
 - 5) a statement that the disclosure is for information only and does not constitute an invitation or offer to acquire, purchase or subscribe for securities;
 - 6) the names of the subscription lead manager (if any), underwriter, financial advisor, legal advisor and receiving agents;
 - 7) a statement of the total value of securities that could be issued under an issuance programme (if applicable); and
 - 8) a disclaimer as follows:

“The Capital Market Authority and the Saudi Stock Exchange Company take no responsibility for the contents of this disclosure, make no representations as to its accuracy or completeness, and expressly disclaim any liability whatsoever for any loss arising from, or incurred in reliance upon, any part of this disclosure.”

Article 32: Dissemination of Information

- a) The Authority may require the publication of further information by, or impose additional continuing obligations on, the issuer where it deems this appropriate. The Authority will notify the issuer of its intentions in this regard and will allow representations by the issuer before imposing any such requirements or obligations.
- b) Except as permitted in paragraph (c) of this Article, information that is required to be disseminated pursuant to these Rules must not be given to a third party before the information has been filed with the Authority and has been published.
- c) The issuer may disclose information that is required to be disseminated pursuant to these Rules before the information has been filed with the Authority and has been published to any of the following persons:
 - 1) the issuer's advisors to the extent necessary for those advisors to provide advice in relation to these Rules;

- 2) the issuer's agent employed to release the information; and
 - 3) persons with whom the issuer is negotiating with a view to effecting a transaction or raising finance, including prospective underwriters of an issue of securities or lenders.
- d) The issuer must advise the above mentioned persons in writing that the information is confidential and that they must not deal in the issuer's securities (or any other related securities) before the information has been made available to the public.
- e) Where, in the opinion of the issuer, disclosure of any matter required by these Rules would be unduly detrimental to the issuer, and omission is not likely to mislead investors with regard to facts and circumstances, knowledge of which is essential for the assessment of the securities in question, the issuer may apply for a waiver from the relevant requirement. The issuer must in that case provide to the Authority on a strictly confidential basis a statement of the requested waiver together with the reasons why the issuer believes that the information should not be disclosed at that time. The Authority may approve or reject the application for a waiver. If the Authority approves the application for a waiver, the Authority may at any time require the issuer to disclose any information in relation to the waiver.

Article 33: Application to Employee Share Schemes

- a) Where an application for registration and offer of securities includes a distribution of shares which are not already listed to employees through an employee share scheme, the following requirements must be fulfilled:
- 1) subscription to such shares is to be restricted to directors and employees of the issuer or its subsidiaries; and
 - 2) the issuer must ensure that the total number of shares to be issued under the scheme does not exceed (15%) of the paid-up capital of the issuer at any time.

Article 34: Dormant Applications

The Authority may, at its absolute discretion, cancel an application for registration and offer of securities where such application has in the opinion of the Authority remained dormant. The effect of such cancellation is that if the issuer then wishes to seek approval for registration and offer of the same securities, it must make a new application in accordance with the process set out in these Rules.

Chapter 3: Conditions and Requirements for a Public Offer of Debt Instruments

Article 35: Scope and application

- a) The provisions of this Chapter apply to the public offer of debt instruments, and the registration of debt instruments offered by way of private placement for the purpose of direct listing on the Exchange.
- b) An issuer seeking to register debt instruments offered by way of private placement for the purpose of direct listing on the Exchange must comply with the requirements of this Chapter and ensure that there are no restrictions preventing their registration and direct listing.

Article 36: Appointment of advisors

- a) Where an issuer makes an application for registration and offer of its debt instruments that requires the production of a prospectus, the issuer must appoint financial advisor and legal advisor. The appointment of a legal advisor is not required if the application for registration of debt instruments offered by way of private placement for the purpose of direct listing on the Exchange is submitted by an issuer who has securities listed on the Exchange.

- b) Where an issuer whose debt instruments are listed submits an application for the voluntary cancellation of listing pursuant to the Listing Rules, the issuer must appoint financial advisor and legal advisor.
- c) The Authority may, at all times, require the issuer to appoint a financial advisor, a legal advisor, or any other advisor to advise the issuer on the application of the provisions of the Capital Market Law, its Implementing Regulations, the Exchange Rules or the Companies Law or its Implementing Regulations
- d) Where a legal advisor (if any) or a financial advisor gives advice to an issuer in relation to the application for registration and offer of its securities or any matter related to the application of these Rules, the Capital Market Law, its Implementing Regulations or the Exchange Rules, it must ensure that it gives appropriate advice in accordance with the rules of its profession.
- e) The representative of the holders of debt instruments must carry out its work professionally, diligently, and with due care taking into account the holders' interests and rights, and in accordance with the rules of its profession.

Article 37: Requirements and obligations of the financial advisor

- a) The financial advisor must be authorised by the Authority to carry out arranging activities and any other securities business related to the services which the financial advisor agreed with the issuer to provide.
- b) Upon an application to the Authority of an issuer for registration and offer of debt instruments, the financial advisor must:
 - 1) be the main point of contact for the Authority in relation to the application for registration and offer of debt instruments;
 - 2) satisfy itself, having conducted due diligence and made enquiry from the issuer and its advisors, and after conducting the necessary study and investigations through the issuer and its advisors, that the issuer has satisfied all conditions required for registration, offer, and the listing of debt instruments and has satisfied all other matters required by the Capital Market Authority;
 - 3) provide to the Authority any information or clarifications in such form and within such time limit as the Authority may require for the purpose of verifying whether the financial advisor and the issuer have complied with the Capital Market Law, its Implementing Regulations or the Exchange Rules;
 - 4) ensure that all the relevant services required by these Rules with due care and skill are provided, and ensure - based on a reasonable opinion based on adequate investigations and professional experience - that the issuer has satisfied all relevant requirements for the registration and offer of debt instruments including provisions regarding the prospectus;
 - 5) ensure that reasonable steps are taken to satisfy itself that the directors of the issuer understand the nature and extent of their responsibilities under the Capital Market Law, its Implementing Regulations, and the Exchange Rules, and ensure - based on a reasonable opinion based on adequate investigations and professional experience - that the directors of the issuer have established adequate procedures, controls and systems which enable the issuer to comply with the requirements of the Capital Market Law, its Implementing Regulations, and the Exchange Rules;

- 6) ensure - based on a reasonable opinion based on adequate investigations and professional experience - that all matters known to the financial advisor which should be taken into account by the Authority when considering the application for registration and offer of debt instruments have been disclosed to the Authority; and
 - 7) ensure that the issuer has obtained letters of consent from all its advisors for the use of their names, logos, and statements in the prospectus.
- c) In the event that the offer is made by a special purposes entity, the financial advisor shall, upon submitting an application to the Authority for offering and registering debt instruments, comply with the following:
- 1) be the main point of contact with the Authority in relation to the application;
 - 2) satisfy itself, having conducted due diligence and made enquiry from the special purposes entity, the sponsor and their advisors, that the sponsor and the special purposes entity have satisfied all conditions required for registration, offer, and the listing of debt instruments and has satisfied all other matters required by the Capital Market Authority;
 - 3) provide to the Authority any information or clarifications in such form and within such time limit as the Authority may require for the purpose of verifying whether the financial advisor, the special purposes entity, and the sponsor have complied with the Capital Market Law, its Implementing Regulations or the Exchange Rules;
 - 4) ensure that all the relevant services required by these Rules are provided with due care and skill, and ensure - based on a reasonable opinion based on adequate investigations and professional experience - that the sponsor and the special purposes entity have satisfied all relevant requirements for the registration and offer of debt instruments including provisions regarding the prospectus;
 - 5) ensure that reasonable steps are taken to satisfy itself that the directors of the sponsor and the directors of the special purposes entity understand the nature and extent of their responsibilities under the Capital Market Law, its Implementing Regulations, and the Exchange Rules, and ensure - based on a reasonable opinion based on adequate investigations and professional experience - that the directors of the sponsor and the directors of the special purposes entity have established adequate procedures, controls, and systems which enable the sponsor and the special purposes entity to comply with the requirements of the Capital Market Law, its Implementing Regulations, and the Exchange Rules.
 - 6) ensure - based on a reasonable opinion based on adequate investigations and professional experience - that all matters known to the financial advisor which should be taken into account by the Authority when considering the application for registration and offer of debt instruments have been disclosed to the Authority; and
 - 7) ensure that the issuer has obtained letters of consent from all the advisors for the use of their names, logos, and statements in the prospectus.

Article 38: Requirements and obligations of the legal advisor

- a) The legal advisor must be licensed to practice law in the Kingdom.
- b) Upon an application to the Authority of an issuer for registration and offer of debt instruments, the legal advisor must:
 - 1) ensure - in consultation with the financial advisor in relation to the requirements of the Capital Market Law, its Implementing Regulations and the Exchange Rule - that it has advised the issuer on the content of the legal sections of the prospectus, and that it has conducted the additional study and investigations that as it considers appropriate; and

- 2) ensure - in consultation with the financial advisor in relation to the requirements of the Capital Market Law, its Implementing Regulations, and the Exchange Rule - that there is no material matter of noncompliance by the issuer with the requirements of the Capital Market Law, its Implementing Regulations and the Exchange Rules that the legal advisor should have been aware of in its advisory capacity, including the requirements related to the content of the prospectus.

Article 39: Representative of the holders of the debt instruments

The issuer must appoint a Capital Market Institution licensed by the Authority to represent the holders of debt instruments.

Article 40: Conditions and requirements for a public offer of debt instruments

- a) An issuer seeking to register and offer its debt instruments must submit an application to the Authority which contains the information required in Annex (11) of these Rules.
- b) The approval of the application for registration and offer of debt instruments will only be given by the Authority if:
 - 1) the Authority has received notification from the Exchange of the Exchange's conditional approval of the corresponding application for listing pursuant to the Listing Rules;
 - 2) the conditional approval mentioned under sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph has not been withdrawn by the Exchange; and
 - 3) the Authority is satisfied that the information contained in the prospectus is complete and fulfils the requirements of the Capital Market Law and its Implementing Regulations.
- c) The Authority will review the application within (20) days of receiving all information and documentation required pursuant to these Rules. The commencement of the period is not subject to the Authority's receipt of the notification referred to in subparagraph (1) of paragraph (b) of this Article provided that the notification must be submitted to the Authority prior to the end of the review period, otherwise the Authority may extend the review period for a term not exceeding (10) days from the date of receipt of the notification.
- d) If, having reviewed the application, the Authority considers that the proposed offer of debt instruments may not be in the interest of the investors or may result in a breach of the Capital Market Law, its Implementing Regulations or the Exchange Rules, then it may take any of the following actions:
 - 1) carry out any enquiries which it considers appropriate;
 - 2) require the issuer or its representative to appear before the Authority to answer questions and explain any matters that the Authority considers relevant to the application. In case the issuer is a special purposes entity, the Authority may require the entity or its representative and the sponsor or its representative to appear before the Authority to answer questions and explain any matters that the Authority considers relevant to the application;
 - 3) require the issuer or third parties to provide additional information or to confirm, in such manner as the Authority may specify, that the information provided is accurate; or

- 4) defer making a decision for such period as may be reasonably necessary to carry out further study or examination.
- e) If, having taken action pursuant to paragraph (d) of this Article, the Authority determines that the offer to be made pursuant to the application may not be in the interest of the investors or may result in a breach of the Capital Market Law, its Implementing Regulations or the Exchange Rules, the Authority may issue a "notification" to the issuer stating that the application has not been approved, or publish a "notice" prohibiting the offer, sale or transfer of title of the debt instruments to which the application relates.
- f) The approval of the application for registration and offer of debt instruments by the Authority shall be considered as an approval of the prospectus, as applicable.
- g) The prospectus must not be published and made available to the public without the approval of the application for registration and offer of debt instruments by the Authority.
- h) The Issuer and its financial advisor may, prior to obtaining the approval of the Authority, present information on the issuer and its financial statements to a specific group of Capital Market Institutions authorised to conduct the advice activity for the purpose of preparing research and financial reports on the issuer, provided that such research and reports shall not be published before obtaining the approval of the Authority for the application of registration and offer of debt instruments.

Article 41: Publication of prospectus and formal notices

- a) If the issuer does not have securities listed on the Exchange, it must publish the prospectus and must ensure that it is made available to the public at least (14) days prior to the start of the offering.
- b) If the issuer has securities listed on the Exchange, it must publish the prospectus and must ensure that it is made available to the public at least (5) days prior to the start of the offering.
- c) The prospectus and any supplementary prospectus shall be made available to the public on the websites of the issuer, the Exchange, the Authority and the financial advisor.
- d) If the pricing supplement information is not included in the prospectus or the supplementary prospectus, the issuer must submit the pricing supplement to the Authority and ensure it is made available to the public prior the start of the offering (whenever possible)
- e) Where an issuer has published a disclosure after the publication of the prospectus in a local newspaper, the disclosure must contain at least the following (if applicable):
 - 1) the name and commercial registration number of the issuer, and in case the issuer is a special purposes entity; the name and registration number of the entity and the name and commercial registration number of the sponsor;
 - 2) the debt instruments that are the subject of the relevant application for registration and offer and their value, type and class;
 - 3) the addresses and locations where the public may obtain the prospectus;
 - 4) the date of publication of the prospectus;
 - 5) a statement that the disclosure is for information only and does not constitute an invitation or offer to acquire, purchase or subscribe for debt instruments;
 - 6) the names of the arranging manager, financial advisor, legal advisor and receiving agents;

- 7) a statement of the total value of debt instruments that could be issued under an issuance programme (if applicable); and
- 8) a disclaimer as follows:

“The Capital Market Authority and the Saudi Stock Exchange Company take no responsibility for the contents of this disclosure, make no representations as to its accuracy or completeness, and expressly disclaim any liability whatsoever for any loss arising from, or incurred in reliance upon, any part of this disclosure.”

Article 42: Dissemination of information

- a) The Authority may require the publication of further information by, or impose additional continuing obligations on, the issuer where it deems this appropriate. The Authority will notify the issuer of its intentions in this regard and will allow representations by the issuer before imposing any such requirements or obligations.
- b) Except as permitted in paragraph (c) of this Article, information that is required to be disseminated pursuant to these Rules must not be given to a third party before the information has been filed with the Authority and has been published.
- c) The issuer may disclose information that is required to be disseminated pursuant to these Rules before the information has been filed with the Authority and has been published to any of the following persons:
 - 1) the issuer’s advisors to the extent necessary for those advisors to provide advice in relation to these Rules;
 - 2) the issuer’s agent employed to release the information; and
 - 3) persons with whom the issuer is negotiating with a view to effecting a transaction or raising finance.
- d) The issuer must advise the above mentioned persons in writing that the information is confidential and that they must not deal in the issuer’s securities (or any other related securities) before the information has been made available to the public.
- e) Where, in the opinion of the issuer, disclosure of any matter required by these Rules would be unduly detrimental to the issuer, and omission is not likely to mislead investors with regard to facts and circumstances, knowledge of which is essential for the assessment of the debt instruments in question, the issuer may apply for a waiver from the relevant requirement. The issuer must in that case provide to the Authority on a strictly confidential basis a statement of the requested waiver together with the reasons why the issuer believes that the information should not be disclosed at that time. The Authority may approve or reject the application for a waiver. If the Authority approves the application for a waiver, the Authority may at any time require the issuer to disclose any information in relation to the waiver.
- f) The provisions of this Article shall apply to the sponsor if the issuer is a special purposes entity.

Article 43: Dormant applications

The Authority may, at its absolute discretion, cancel an application for registration and offer of debt instruments where such application has in the opinion of the Authority remained dormant. The effect of such cancellation is that if the issuer then wishes to seek approval for registration and offer of the same debt instruments, it must make a new application in accordance with the process set out in these Rules.

PART 5

 - 2) to repay all rights and claims of the special purposes entity with respect to the financing transaction.
- c) Neither the sponsor nor any affiliate of it, nor any person acting on behalf of the sponsor, may exercise any voting rights with respect to debt instruments issued to it in a meeting of holders of a class of debt instruments.

PART 6

Capital Alteration

Chapter 1: Capital Increase for Issuers of Listed Shares

Article 55: Scope and Application

- a) The purpose of this Part is to regulate the issuance, registration and offering or cancelation of shares as a result of a capital alteration of an issuer whose shares are listed on the Main Market.
- b) The Special purposes entities shall not be subject to the provisions of this Part.
- c) A foreign issuer whose shares are listed on the Main Market pursuant to the Listing Rules shall not be subject to the provisions of this Part.

Article 56: Application Submission for Capital Increase of Issuers of Listed Securities and Supporting Documents

Where an issuer wishes to register and offer new shares of a class already listed by raising its capital, either by way of rights issue, share issuance with the suspension of preemptive rights, capitalisation issue, debt conversion, acquisition of a company or asset purchase, it must obtain the Authority's approval prior to calling for the issuer's extraordinary general assembly meeting. The approval of the extraordinary general assembly of the issuer must be obtained within six months of the approval of the Authority. If the assembly's approval is not obtained during such time, the Authority's approval shall be deemed to be cancelled and the issuer will be required to resubmit its letter of application if it still wishes to increase its capital.

Article 57: Conditions and Requirements Applicable to a Rights Issue or Capital Increase with the Suspension of Preemptive Rights

- a) In addition to any other applicable requirements under Article (26) of these Rules, where an issuer wishes to submit an application for registration and offer of securities to the Authority in respect of a rights issue or for registration and offer of securities for capital increase with the suspension of preemptive rights, the following conditions must be satisfied:
 - 1) details of the proceeds of any previous rights issues or previous share issuances with the suspension of preemptive rights must be provided and such details must be compared with the disclosure made under the previous relevant prospectus; and
 - 2) details of any qualifications made in the audited financial statements for the preceding financial year must be provided.
- b) The increase of capital with the suspension of preemptive rights shall not exceed, for each issue, (15%) of the issuer's capital, and the offer of the shares of a capital increase with the suspension of preemptive rights shall be limited to investors of the categories of qualified clients and institutional clients.
- c) Investors, who own the shares of a capital increase with the suspension of preemptive rights, must not dispose of such shares during a period of six months following their listing date.
- d) The issuer must submit to the Authority after the approval of an application for registration and offer of securities for capital increase with the suspension of preemptive rights and before listing such securities an electronic copy of the list of shareholders and shares allocated to them, and the issuer must maintain the original copy of this document and submit it to the Authority at request.

- e) Where the offer is not completed by the prescribed offer end date specified in a prospectus for the share issuance with the suspension of preemptive rights, the financial advisor must provide the Authority within ten days of the offer end date with a notification in writing signed by the financial advisor confirming that the offer has not completed. The financial advisor may, in consultation with the issuer, extend the period of the offer before the end date of the offer, and the investors of the categories of qualified clients and institutional clients who has subscribed to the shares prior to the extension of the offer period may cancel or amend their subscriptions.
- f) The issuer must, in the event of any discrepancy of (5%) or more between the actual use of the proceeds from a rights issue or a share issuance with the suspension of preemptive rights and the planned use of proceeds that was disclosed in the relevant prospectus, disclose such discrepancy to the public as it becomes aware of such discrepancy.

Article 58: Conditions and Requirements Applicable to a Capitalisation Issue

Where an issuer wishes to increase its capital by way of a capitalisation issue it must submit to the Authority a letter of application that includes the minimum information set out in Annex (24) of these Rules.

Article 59: Conditions and Requirements Applicable to Capital Increase Through Debt Conversion

- a) In addition to any other applicable requirements under Article (26) of these Rules, where an issuer wishes to increase its capital by way of a debt conversion, the issuer must submit the following documents to the Authority:
 - 1) a statement of the origin and amount of the debt; signed and certified by the board of directors and the auditors of the issuer; and
 - 2) a legal review report and a legal opinion issued by the issuer's legal advisor on the extent to which the debt conversion transaction complies with the relevant laws.
- b) Where an issuer wishes to increase its capital by way of a debt conversion it must produce a circular for its shareholders stating the information required to enable the shareholders to make an informed vote at the relevant extraordinary general assembly. This circular shall include, but is not limited to the items set out in Annex (19) of these Rules.
- c) The shareholders' circular - submitted to the Authority in respect of a request of a capital increase by way of a debt conversion- must be produced in Arabic and be annotated in the margin to indicate where the information required by the applicable paragraphs of these Rules have been included and any changes from any previous drafts must be clearly marked. Each draft shareholders' circular must indicate the draft number and date of submission on its cover page.

Article 60: Conditions and Requirements Applicable to a Capital Increase to Acquire a Company or Purchase an Asset

In addition to any other applicable requirements under Article (26) of these Rules, where the purpose of a capital increase is to acquire a company or purchase an asset, the following requirements must be complied with as applicable:

- 1) The issuer must submit to the Authority a report prepared by the issuer's financial advisor comprising the issuer's valuation and a valuation of the target company to be acquired or the asset to be purchased.

- 2) The issuer must submit to the Authority a financial due diligence report and a legal due diligence report issued by the legal advisor for the target company to be acquired or assets to be purchased.
- 3) The issuer must produce a circular for its shareholders stating the information required to enable the shareholders to make an informed vote at the extraordinary general assembly. This circular shall include, but is not limited to the items set out in Annex (20) of these Rules.
- 4) The shareholders' circular –submitted to the Authority in respect of a request of a capital increase to acquire a company or purchase an asset– must be produced in Arabic and be annotated in the margin to indicate where the information required by the applicable paragraphs of these Rules have been included and any changes from any previous drafts must be clearly marked. Each draft shareholders' circular must indicate the draft number and date of submission on its cover page.

Chapter 2: Capital Reduction for Issuers of Listed Shares

Article 61: Conditions and Requirements Applicable to a Capital Reduction

- a) Where an issuer wishes to reduce its share capital, it must submit to the Authority a letter of application that includes the minimum information set out in Annex (25) of these Rules, for the Authority's approval prior to obtaining the approval of the relevant extraordinary general assembly of the issuer on the capital reduction. The application must be accompanied by the following:
 - 1) the letter of appointment for the financial advisor;
 - 2) the letter of appointment for the legal advisor (if any);
 - 3) an external auditor's report on the reasons for the capital reduction and the impact of the capital reduction on the issuer's liabilities;
 - 4) the proposed method of capital reduction and the expected effect of such reduction;
 - 5) a copy of the shareholders' circular as per paragraph b) below; and
 - 6) any other documentation as may be required by the Authority.
- b) Where an issuer wishes to reduce its share capital, it must also produce a circular for its shareholders stating the information required to enable the shareholders to make an informed vote at the relevant extraordinary general assembly. This circular shall include, but is not limited to, the following:
 - 1) the general structure of the proposed reduction in share capital;
 - 2) the rationale behind the proposed reduction in share capital, including a reasoned discussion from management in this regard;
 - 3) the risk factors related to the proposed reduction in share capital;
 - 4) the proposed timing of the process; and
 - 5) a statement from the directors of the issuer confirming that in the board's view, the proposed reduction in share capital is in the best interests of the issuer and the shareholders.

- c) The shareholders' circular - submitted to the Authority in respect of a capital reduction request - must be produced in Arabic language and be annotated in the margin to indicate where the information required by the applicable paragraphs of these Rules have been included and any changes from any previous drafts must be clearly marked. Each draft shareholders' circular must indicate the draft number and date of submission on its cover page.

PART 7

Continuing Obligations

Chapter 1: Disclosures

Article 62: Scope and Application

- a) The purpose of this Part is to regulate the continuing obligations of issuers whose securities are listed on the Main Market.
- b) Provisions of Article (63) , paragraphs (1), (2), (3), (6), (10), (11), (12), (13), (14), (15), (16), (26), (27), (28) and (29) of paragraph (a) of Article (65), paragraphs (a) and (e) of Article (66) , and Articles (67), (69) and (71) of these Rules shall apply to the sponsor.
- c) Provisions of paragraphs (4), (30) and (31) of paragraph (a) of Article (65) of these Rules shall only apply to the sponsor, in case the issuer is a special purposes entity.
- d) Provisions of Article (70), Article (72), and paragraph (b) of Article (71) of these Rules shall not apply to the issues made by a special purposes entity.
- e) A foreign issuer whose shares are listed on the Main Market pursuant to the Listing Rules shall be subject to the provisions of Article (63), Article (64), and paragraphs (1), (2), (3), (4), (5), (6), (7), (8), (9), (10), (11), (12), (13), (14), (15), (16), (26), (27), (28), (29), (30), (31), (32), (33) and (34) of paragraph (a) of Article (65), sub-paragraph (1) of paragraph (a) and paragraphs (b) and (e) of Article (66), Article (67) , Article (68) , Article (69) , Article (70) and Article (71) of these Rules.

Article 63: Complete, Clear, Accurate and not Misleading Disclosures

- a) All disclosures made by an issuer must be complete, clear, accurate and not misleading and shall comply with the means of disclosure specified by the Exchange in the Listing Rules.
- b) Where, in the opinion of the issuer, disclosure of any matter required by these Rules would be unduly detrimental to the issuer, and omission is not likely to mislead investors with regard to facts and circumstances, knowledge of which is essential for the assessment of the securities in question, the issuer may apply for a waiver from the relevant requirement or otherwise request to delay the disclosure. The issuer must in that case provide to the Authority on a strictly confidential basis a statement of the requested waiver or delay together with the reasons why the issuer believes that the information should not be disclosed at that time. The Authority may approve or reject the application for a waiver or delay. If the Authority approves the application for a waiver or delay, the Authority may at any time require the issuer to disclose any information in relation to the waiver or delay.
- c) All information and material developments stated in this Chapter shall be deemed confidential until they are disclosed. Before disclosing such information and material developments, the issuer shall be prohibited from communicating such information to parties not bound by a confidentiality obligation and an obligation to protect such information. An issuer must also take all necessary steps to prevent the leakage of any information and material developments before disclosing them as described in the Listing Rules.
- d) An issuer must determine the need to publish a disclosure to the public in response to rumours related to any material developments, and the Authority may require such publication to be made by the issuer as it sees appropriate.

Article 64: Obligation to Disclose Material Developments

- a) An issuer must disclose to the Authority and the public without delay any material developments in its sphere of activity which are not public knowledge, and which may affect the assets and liabilities or financial position or the general course of business of the issuer or its subsidiaries and which may reasonably lead to movements in the price of the issuer's listed securities or significantly affect an issuer's ability to meet its commitments in respect of listed debt instruments.

PART 11

Significant Transactions

Article 102: Scope and Application

- a) With regards to the provisions of Article 75 of the Companies Law, the provisions of this Part apply to the issuer who wishes to carry out a significant transaction.
- b) A significant Transaction in accordance with this Part is any transaction requiring the approval of shareholders in accordance with Article 107 of these Rules, however its nature, whereby the issuer wishes to sell a portion of its assets, business or a subsidiary, or in the sale of its share in a subsidiary, through transferring them as a whole to one or several existing entities (the acquiring legal entities) or to be newly founded, or to the public in return for cash or shares in the acquiring legal entity being granted to the listed company.

Article 103: General Provisions

- a) The issuer, when calculating the percentage to determine whether the transaction (or multiple transaction) constitute a significant transaction that requires the consent of the shareholders, shall apply all criteria for determining the applicable category, so the value of the percentage rate is the most recent published numbers of the assets value, revenues Or profits as shown in the most recent audited interim financial statements or audited annual financial statements, whichever is more recent, in addition to the market value of the issuer at the time the transaction (or multiple transactions) is declared, as applicable.
- b) When making an assessment to determine whether there has been a material change in the issuer as a result of the transaction, the issuer shall consider the following:
 - 1) The extent of the change resulting from the transaction in the direction or strategic nature of the company's business.
 - 2) Whether the issuer's business will be considered a part of a different sector after the transaction is completed.

Article 104: Conditions Relating to the Listed Company

The issuer who is seeking to carry out the transaction shall have completed at least 3 financial years as a listed company.

Article 105: Applying Class Tests and Calculating Percentage Ratios

- a) With regards to the provisions of Article 75 of the Companies Law, to determine whether the transaction represents a significant transaction that requires shareholders' approval, by reference to the percentage, the issuer shall evaluate the size of the transaction against the size of the company or the asset the subject of the significant transaction. The size is determined by using the percentages resulting from applying Class Tests calculations to this transaction according to the details in Annex (30) of these Rules.
- b) If any percentage calculations result in an unusual or inappropriate result of the scope of the issuer's activities, the Authority may ignore such calculations and replace it with other size related indicators, including the sector-specific measures. The listed company shall submit the alternative measures it deems appropriate to the Authority for its consideration.

- c) In case of any percentage changes between the time a transaction with the Authority is discussed (as applicable) and the time of its announcement, the Issuer shall inform the Authority of such change. Moreover, the Issuer shall comply with the relevant requirements applicable to the Transaction at the time of its declaration.

Article 106: Aggregation of Transactions

The Authority may request the Issuer to combine a series of transactions and act on them as if they were a single transaction, provided that all of them were completed within twelve months or were linked to each other. In such cases, the issuer must comply with the Class Tests of the transaction when aggregated and the figures to be used to determine percentages are those shown in the most recent audited financial statements or audited annual financial statements, whichever is earlier.

Article 107: Shareholders' Approval

If any of the percentages set in Annex (30) of these Rules reaches (50%) or more of the planned transaction, the Issuer shall obtain the prior approval of its shareholders at the General Assembly meeting. Any shareholder having a direct or indirect interest in the proposed transaction must abstain from voting on such transaction at the General Assembly meeting.

Article 108: Specialised Committee and Independent Financial Advisor

- a) In respect of any significant transaction subject to the approval of the shareholders in accordance with Article (107) of these Rules, the Issuer shall establish a specialised committee (consisting solely of independent Board members or of other independent persons or both of whom have no substantial interest in the proposed transaction). That's to advise shareholders on whether the terms of the relevant transaction are fair and reasonable and whether the transaction is in the interest of the issuer and all of its shareholders.
- b) The Issuer shall appoint a Financial Advisor authorised by the Authority to provide advisory services and make recommendations to the Specialised Committee and the shareholders as to whether the terms of the relevant transaction are fair and reasonable and whether the transaction is in the interest of the issuer and all of its shareholders.

Article 109: Circular to Shareholders

- a) In respect of any significant transaction subject to the approval of the shareholders in accordance with Article (107) of these Rules, the Issuer shall prepare a circular on the proposed transaction to be submitted to shareholders, published and made available to the public at least (14) days prior to the date of the General Assembly in which the shareholders will vote on the transaction. The circular shall include, at a minimum, the following;
- 1) Sufficient information on the proposed transaction, provided that such information includes, at minimum, the following:
 - a. Proposed structure and purpose of the transaction.
 - b. The most prominent financial information illustrating the financial impact of the transaction.
 - c. The most prominent legal information related to the terms of the transaction, which the shareholders need to make a decision based on knowledge and awareness.
 - d. Risk factors related to the transaction.

- 2) A separate letter from the specialised committee advising shareholders as to whether the relevant terms of the transaction are fair and reasonable in accordance with the Article (108) of these Rules and whether such a transaction is in the interest of the issuer and all of its shareholders, taking into account the recommendations of the financial advisor.
 - 3) A separate letter from the financial advisor, including its recommendations to the specialised committee and shareholders, on whether the relevant terms of the transaction are fair and reasonable, and whether this transaction is in the interest of the issuer and all of its shareholders.
 - 4) The circular shall include the following disclaimer: “The Capital Market Authority and the Saudi Stock Exchange Company shall not assume any responsibility for the contents of this Circular, and shall not give any assurance regarding its accuracy or completeness, and expressly disclaim any liability whatsoever for any loss resulting from what is stated in this circular or from reliance on any part thereof.”
- b) The circular and the two letters referred to in paragraph (a) of this article shall indicate the reasons behind the opinion and its main assumptions and the factors taken into account in forming the opinion.

Article 110: Requirements for Registration, Offering and Listing of Shares of the Entity Resulting from the Transaction

In case of the entity resulting from the transaction wishes to register, offer and list its shares in the market, all the requirements for registration and offering of securities provided for in these Rules and the listing requirement stipulated in the Listing Rules must be fulfilled.

PART 12

Publication and Entry into Force

Article 111: Publication and Entry into Force

Moreover, such documents must be submitted to the Authority upon request].

ANNEX 11

CONDITIONS AND REQUIREMENTS FOR A PUBLIC OFFER OF DEBT INSTRUMENTS

First: Conditions for a Public Offer of debt instruments

The conditions for making a public offer of debt instruments are:

- 1) The issuer must be a joint stock company, or a special purposes entity authorised in accordance with the Rules for Special Purposes Entities.
- 2) Any application for registration and offer of debt instruments must be accompanied by a prospectus.
- 3) When submitting an application for registration and offer of debt instruments, the issuer must have been carrying on, either by itself or through one or more of its subsidiaries, the same main activity for at least the previous three years before submitting the application for registration and offer of debt instruments.
- 4) When submitting an application for registration and offer of debt instruments, the issuer must have audited financial statements that cover at least the previous three financial years and that were prepared in accordance with the accounting standards adopted by SOCPA.
- 5) If the period covered by the most recent audited financial statements has ended more than six months prior to the expected date of approval of the application for registration and offer of debt instruments, it shall submit to the Authority a reviewed interim financial statements covering any period from the date of the end of the period covered by the latest audited financial statements until the expected date of approval of the application for registration and offer of debt instruments, or submit audited annual financial statements (as applicable). In all cases, the period covered by the latest audited interim financial statements submitted to the Authority shall not have ended more than (6) months before the date of approval of the application for registration and offer of debt instruments.
- 6) Where the issuer has undergone material restructuring, an application for registration and offer of debt instruments may not be submitted until one financial year has elapsed from the date of completion of that material restructuring. For the purposes of this paragraph, "material restructuring" shall mean:
 - a. disposing any of the issuer's asset that has contributed in generating (30%) or more of the issuer's revenue or net income as per the most recent annual financial statements.
 - b. acquiring assets with a value exceeding (30%) or more of the net asset value of the issuer as per the most recent annual financial statements.
 - c. acquiring a company with a shareholder equity constituting (30%) or more of the issuer's shareholder equity as per the most recent annual financial statements.
- 7) The senior executives of the issuer must have an appropriate expertise and experience for the management of the issuer's business.
- 8) If reviewed interim financial statements are issued during the application period, the issuer must provide a copy of such statements to the Authority as soon as reasonably practicable.
- 9) Where an issuer wishes to launch a debt instrument issuance programme, it must produce a single prospectus which covers the maximum value of debt instruments which may be issued under the programme. If the Authority approves the prospectus, all debt instruments which may be issued under that programme must be offered within (24) months after the approval of the prospectus.
- 10) In the event of offering convertible debt instruments or exchangeable debt instruments:

- a. convertible debt instruments may be registered and offered only if the class of shares into which they are convertible are already listed.
 - b. Exchangeable debt instruments may be registered and offered only if the shares into which they are exchangeable are already listed; and the issuer may not dispose of shares equal to the shares that may be exchanged before the expiration of those instruments' maturity date.
 - c. The Authority's approval of the application for registration and offer of a convertible debt instrument is regarded as approval of the issuance of the relevant share upon conversion.
- 11) Debt instruments offered by way of private placement may not be registered for the purpose of direct listing on the Exchange unless the maturity date of the debt instruments that are the subject of the registration application is at least one calendar year after the date of the Authority's approval of the application.
 - 12) Convertible debt instruments offered by way of private placement may not be registered for the purpose of direct listing on the Exchange unless the class of shares into which they may be converted is listed.
 - 13) An application for registration and offer of debt instruments may be accepted if it does not meet the requirements of this Article if the Authority is satisfied that it will be in the interest of the investors and that the issuer presented investors with the necessary information to arrive at an informed judgment concerning the issuer and the debt instruments that are the subject of the application.
 - 14) In relation to an offer of debt instruments by a special purposes entity, the provisions of paragraphs (3), (4), (5), (6) and (7) of this Article shall apply only on the sponsor.
 - 15) Where the registration of asset-linked recourse debt instruments or debt-based recourse debt instruments offered by way of private placement for the purpose of direct listing on the Exchange by a special purposes entity, paragraph (6) of this Article shall apply on the sponsor only.
 - 16) In relation to an offer of debt instruments by a special purposes entity, the provisions of the paragraph (8) of this Article shall apply on the special purposes entity and the sponsor.
 - 17) Where an issuer (or the sponsor if the offer was made by a special purposes entity) already has securities that are listed on the Exchange, paragraphs (3), (4), (5), (6) and (8) of this Article shall not apply.
 - 18) Paragraph (2) of this Article shall not apply in the event an issuer who has securities listed on the Exchange issues additional debt instrument and such additional debt instruments lead to an increase not exceeding 10% of the previously listed debt instruments, provided that the issuer discloses any issuance made in accordance with this paragraph according to what the Authority determines. For the purposes of determining this percentage, a series of issuances that take place within (12) months are considered one issuance, and a series of deals that the Authority considers to be one deal are considered one issuance.

Second: Requirement to Submit an Application for Registration and Offer to the Authority:

- a) An issuer seeking to register and offer its debt instruments must submit an application to the Authority which contains the information required under these Rules, and submit to the Exchange, at the same time, an application for listing of such securities in accordance with the provisions of the Listing Rules.
- b) The issuer, or the sponsor if the issuer is a special purposes entity, must submit to the Authority with its application for registration and offer electronic copies of the following documents (it shall maintain original copies of such documents and submit it to the Authority at its request):

 - 5) approvals required by the relevant governmental agencies, where applicable;
 - 6) evidence of the issuer obtaining the required approvals in accordance with Article (17) of these Rules;
 - 7) the draft prospectus in Arabic;
 - 8) the issuer's articles of association and bylaws and all amendments to date, and in case the issuer is a special purposes entity, the sponsor's articles of association and bylaws and all amendments to date;
 - 9) the audited annual financial statements of the issuer for each of the three financial years immediately preceding submission of the application;
 - 10) the latest interim financial statements produced since the date of the most recent audited annual financial statements;
 - 11) a presentation detailing the structure of the issuer and its subsidiaries, along with a detailed description of the most recent restructuring of the issuer (if applicable);
 - 12) a copy of the debenture agreement or any other document constituting or securing such instruments must be included;
 - 13) a copy of the agreement appointing the representative of the holders of the debt instruments;
 - 14) in case the issuer is a special purposes entity, the agreement governing the finance with the sponsor;
 - 15) in case the issuer is a special purposes entity, the agreement with the custodian (where applicable);
 - 16) in case the issuer is a special purposes entity, any agreement governing the special purposes entity's investment or management; and
 - 17) any other documentation that may be required by the Authority.
- c) Following the approval of the application for registration and offer by the Authority and prior to the listing, the issuer, or the sponsor if the issuer is a special purposes entity, must submit an electronic copy (and shall maintain the original copies for submission at the Authority's request) of the following documents:
- 1) a prospectus in Arabic signed by the representatives of the issuer who are appointed as authorised signatories;
 - 2) the debt instruments allocation model;
 - 3) a pricing supplement (or a guiding pricing supplement for registration of debt instruments offered by way of private placement) signed by a duly authorised representative of the issuer, must be submitted in writing to the Authority as soon as the issuer submits it to the Exchange for consideration under the Listing Rules; and if the offer is by a special purposes entity in the context of a financing transaction subject to the provisions of Part Five of these Rules, a pricing supplement signed by a representative of the entity and the sponsor authorised to sign;
 - 4) the latest reviewed interim financial statements (where applicable);
 - 5) all relevant signed distribution agreements and subscription management agreements (as applicable); and
 - 6) an updated and signed letter that contains the applicable information as required by Annex (8) of these Rules.

- d) With regard to the debt instrument issuance program, the issuer, or the sponsor if the issuer is a special purposes entity in the context of a financing transaction subject to the provisions of Chapter Five of these Rules, must, following the approval of the application for registration and offer by the Authority, and after the completion of the offering of each tranche of a debt issuance programme but prior to the listing thereof, comply with the following requirements:
- 1) must submit the following documents to the Authority:
 - a. a pricing supplement (or a guiding pricing supplement for registration of debt instruments offered by way of private placement) for each tranche under the programme, signed by a duly authorised representative of the issuer, must be submitted in writing to the Authority as soon as the issuer submits it to the Exchange for consideration under the Listing Rules; and if the offer is by a special purposes entity in the context of a financing transaction subject to the provisions of Chapter Five of these Rules, a pricing supplement for each tranche of the debt instrument issuance program signed by a representative of the entity and the sponsor authorised to sign; and
 - b. a confirmation letter that the debt instruments in question have been offered.
 - 2) the issuer must notify the Authority as soon as possible of the final allocation of the debt instruments offered in accordance with the provisions of this section, as well as the total amount paid compared to the total value offered under the prospectus;
 - 3) the pricing supplement of each tranche under the programme must include details in respect of the issue, maturity and redemption dates (if any) of the debt instruments offered as well as the pricing details; and
 - 4) the pricing supplement must provide the terms and conditions of an issue, in addition to those set out in the prospectus related to the debt instrument issuance programme.
- e) The issuer, or the sponsor in the case of an offering by a special purposes entity in the context of a financing transaction subject to the provisions of Part Five of these rules, must disclose – through the electronic system specifically designated for such purpose by the Exchange– the pricing supplement referred to in paragraphs (c) and (d) of this Article upon the completion of the offering of each issuance and upon the listing of debt instruments.
- f) The issuer, or the sponsor if the issuer is a special purposes entity, must retain original copies (or certified copy where appropriate) of all documents required pursuant to this Article for a period not less than ten years from the completion of the offer. Without prejudice to this period, in the event such documents relate to any litigation or claim (including any litigation pending or threatened) or any on-going investigations, the issuer must retain such documents until the closure of that litigation, claim or on-going investigation.
- g) Subparagraphs (2), (8), (9), and (10) of paragraph (b), and subparagraph (4) of paragraph (c) of this Section shall not apply if the issuer has securities listed on the Exchange.
- h) Subparagraph (4) of Paragraph (b) of this Section shall not apply to an issuer whose shares are listed on the Exchange.
- i) In case the offer is made by a special purposes entity:
 - 1) subparagraphs (2), (6), (9), and (10) of paragraph (b), subparagraphs (1) and (4) of paragraph (c) and paragraph (f) of this Article shall apply to the sponsor in addition to the special purposes entity.
 - 2) subparagraph (2), (8), (9), and (10) of paragraph (b), and subparagraphs (4) of paragraph (c) of this Article shall not apply to the sponsor if the sponsor has securities listed on the Exchange.

Third: Conditions and Requirements of the Prospectus

- a) The prospectus must contain all information which is necessary to enable an investor to make an assessment of the activities, assets and liabilities, financial position, management and prospects of the issuer and of its profits and losses and must include information in relation to the number and price of the debt instruments and any obligations, rights, powers and privileges attaching to them. If the Issuer is a Special purposes entity, the Prospectus shall include all information necessary to enable the Investor to evaluate the activity, assets and liabilities of the special purposes entity, in addition to the sponsor's assets, liabilities, financial position, management, expected opportunities, profits and losses. and it shall include information on the number and price of debt instruments and any obligations Rights, powers and privileges associated with them.

- b) Annex (14) of these Rules sets out the minimum information which must be included in a prospectus for debt instruments where the issuer does not have securities listed on the Exchange. If the Issuer is a Special purposes entity, Annex (14)(a) of these Rules shall determine the minimum required information to be included in prospectus of issuing debt-based recourse debt instruments or asset-linked recourse debt instruments for a special purposes entity.
- c) Annex (15) of these Rules sets out the minimum information which must be included in a prospectus for debt instruments where the issuer has securities listed on the Exchange, provided that such securities continue to be listed throughout the offer and listing process.
- d) Annex (16) of these Rules sets out the minimum information which must be included in a prospectus for convertible debt instruments and exchangeable debt instruments.
- e) In case of registration of debt instruments offered by way of private placement, annex (17) of these Rules sets out the minimum information which must be included in the registration document for debt instruments offered by way of private placement for the purpose of direct listing on the Exchange if issuer does not have securities listed on the Exchange, and annex (18) of these Rules sets out the minimum information which must be included in the registration document for debt instruments offered by way of private placement for the purpose of direct listing on the Exchange where the issuer has securities listed on the Exchange, provided that such securities continue to be listed throughout the offer and listing process.
- f) The draft of the prospectus that is submitted to the Authority must be in the Arabic language.
- g) The draft prospectus submitted to the Authority must be annotated in the margin to indicate where the information required by the applicable paragraphs of these Rules has been included and any changes from any previous drafts must be clearly marked. Each draft prospectus must indicate the draft number and date of submission on its cover page.
- h) If the issuer or sponsor -if the issuer is a special purposes entity-has its securities listed in the Exchange, the prospectus may include electronic links referring to information that the issuer or sponsor has previously disclosed in the Exchange, provided that the following conditions are met:
 - 1) the information must be published by the issuer or sponsor on the Exchange's website;
 - 2) all electronic links to the Exchange's website must be valid and functional at all times;
 - 3) the information referred to must be defined in a clear and non-misleading manner; and
 - 4) Such referrals should not prejudice the completeness, clarity, and correctness of any information in the prospectus.

For the purposes of the Capital Market Law and its implementing regulations, the information contained in the electronic pages referred to in the prospectus shall be considered part of the prospectus.

Fourth: Conditions and Requirements of the Supplementary Prospectus

- a) A supplementary prospectus must be submitted to the Authority if, at any time after that prospectus has been published and before completion of the offer, the issuer, and the sponsor in relation to issuance of debt instruments by a special purposes entity, becomes aware that:

ANNEX 21

EXTERNAL AUDITOR'S REPORT

This Annex details the external auditor's report which is prepared pursuant to, Annex (12) (Contents of a Prospectus for Shares), Annex (13) (Content of a Prospectus for a Rights Issue), Annex (14) (Contents of a Prospectus for Debt Instruments and Convertible Debt Instruments for an issuer without securities listed on the Exchange), Annex (15) (Content of a Prospectus for Debt Instruments for an issuer that has securities currently listed on the Exchange), and Annex(17) (Contents of a Registration Document for Registration of Debt Instruments Offered by Way Of Private Placement For An Issuer Without Securities Listed On The Exchange) to the Rules on the Offer of Securities and Continuing Obligations. The Authority must be consulted in cases where the issuer is uncertain as to whether an external auditor's report is required.

The external auditor's report must be prepared by an independent external auditor who is a current member certified by SOCPA.

1) Contents of external auditor's report:

- a) The report must cover the issuer and its subsidiaries (if applicable).
- b) The report must be extracted from the audited financial statements and adjusted as considered necessary by the reporting external auditor.
- c) The report must be prepared in accordance with the accounting standards issued by SOCPA.
- d) The report must include the following financial information, presented in a form consistent with that which is adopted in the issuer's annual financial statements, and must cover the three financial years immediately preceding the application for registration and offer of securities subject to the relevant prospectus or the application for the registration of securities subject to the relevant registration document [use as applicable]:
 1. balance sheet;
 2. income statement;
 3. cash flow statement;
 4. accounting policies; and
 5. any notes to the financial statements covering, as a minimum, the last three financial years.
- e) The report must contain an opinion by the external auditor as to whether or not, for the purposes for which it was prepared, the report gives a true and fair view of the financial matters set out therein.
- f) If the opinion in paragraph (e) above is qualified, the report must refer to all material matters about which the external auditor has reservations, give all reasons for the qualifications and, if both relevant and practicable, quantify its effect.
- g) In the event that the issuer is applying for registration and offer of the securities or applying for the registration of securities [use as applicable] for the first time, the report must not contain any qualification unless the Authority is satisfied that the qualification is acceptable to the Authority and has been adequately explained so as to enable the investors to make a proper and appropriate assessment of the significance of the matter that is the subject of the qualification.

2) Statement of adjustments

If the external auditor, when preparing his report, considers it necessary to effect adjustments to previously published figures, such adjustments must be limited to those that the external auditor considers necessary. The external auditor must prepare and sign a written statement of the adjustments, and submit it to the Authority for each period to which the report relates, in such form and detail and with such explanation as will show how the reported figures reconcile to the corresponding information in the published accounts. The statement of adjustments must be made available for inspection.

3) Material acquisitions and disposals made during the period under review

- a) Where the issuer has acquired at any time during the three financial years immediately preceding the application for registration and offer of securities or application for the registration of securities [use as applicable] that are subject to the report, an undertaking or assets which would be classified as material by the Authority, financial information on the undertaking or assets must be given covering the last three years. An acquisition or disposition will be material where the consideration due in respect of such acquisition or disposition is greater than 15% of the net book value of the existing net assets of the issuer and its subsidiaries (if applicable).
- b) The external auditor's report must include the post-acquisition information on the issuer and its subsidiaries and relevant undertaking referred to in paragraph (a) above.
- c) Where the issuer has, since the date to which the latest published annual financial statements have been made up, acquired or disposed of an undertaking or assets which would be classified as material by the Authority, a pro forma net assets statement showing the effect of the acquisition or disposal on the net assets must be submitted.

In the case of a new application for registration and offer of securities or application for the registration of securities [use as applicable], where the external auditor's report on the audited financial statements for the last three financial years of any undertaking acquired by the issuer during the period under review has been qualified, the issuer will be regarded as unsuitable for registration and offer of the securities or registration of securities [use as applicable] unless the Authority is satisfied that the qualification has been adequately explained so as to enable the investors to make a proper and appropriate assessment of the significance of the matter that is the subject of the qualification.

CLASS TESTS

This Annex sets out the following Class Tests:

1. The Assets test:

The assets test is calculated by dividing the total gross assets which are the subject of the transaction by the total gross assets of the Listed Company, according to the latest reviewed interim financial statements or audited annual financial statements, whichever is later.

2. The Profits test:

The profits test is calculated by dividing the net profits attributable to the assets which are the subject of the transaction by the net profits of the Listed Company, according to the latest reviewed interim financial statements or audited annual financial statements, whichever is later.

3. Revenues test:

The revenues test is calculated by dividing the gross revenues attributable to the assets which are the subject of the transaction divided by the gross revenues of the Listed Company, according to the latest reviewed interim financial statements or audited annual financial statements, whichever is later.

4. Consideration test:

The consideration test is calculated by dividing the consideration (i.e. the amount paid to the contracting party in the transaction) by the total market capitalisation of the Listed Company (excluding treasury shares). The total market capitalisation is the average closing price of the Listed Company's securities as listed on the Exchange for the five business days preceding the date of signing the final agreement or announcing the transaction.
