Saudi Pottery Pipe Production Company Saudi Vitrified Clay Pipe Co.

Future Expectations

There was a 28% decrease in the company's sales in 2021 from 2020 due to the delay in starting new projects due to the impact of the markets on the Corona pandemic, which affected most economic sectors, both locally and globally, and we hope that the pandemic will end soon, especially in the Kingdom as a result of the tremendous efforts made by the Kingdom. Which will certainly have a positive impact on the progress of projects as well as the introduction of new projects during the year 2022 and the following years, although work on many of the current projects during the year 2021, although slower than the rate, which led to the main main keeping the demand for the company's products stable but negatively affected the production capacity rate of the company and resulted in a rise in the result Production costs, which in turn led to a decrease in operating profits by 100.08% from the previous year , which is expected to continue to affect during the year 2022, God willing.

There are expectations that activity will return to the market during 2022 and early next year 2023, which may positively affect performance and market demands and with it expected growth in project completion during the coming year.

International Financial Reporting Standards

The company applied the international standards for financial reports from 01/01/2017 which became mandatory for listed companies as of 01/01/2017. The company has prepared its initial and annual financial statements for the fiscal year 2021 accordingly and during the specified regular periods.

Value Added Tax

The company applies VAT in line with regulations in Saudi Arabia from 01/01/2018. The company has been registered in VAT with the General Authority for Zakat and Income, although VAT will not have a substantial impact on the company's results.

Information on any risks facing the company and the policy of managing and monitoring these risks

The risks described below do not include all the risks that the Company may face, but there may be additional risks that are not currently known to the Company, or may be considered insignificant by the Company, that may hinder its operations.

A- The company's market is influenced by economic factors affecting the economy in general, and related to the financial situation and income level, where the oil sector is the most influential sector on the Saudi economy and where the volatility of oil prices affects the level of expenditure in general.

B- Since its inception, the company has relied on an experienced management team in management and operation, and the approval of these leaders is one of the most important elements affecting the development and progress of the company's performance.

Commission rate risk

The risk of commission rates represents the risks of a financial instrument's fluctuation as a result of changes in the prevailing commission rates in the market. The company manages its cash flows by monitoring the timing between the cash flow collected and the cash flow used. However, the risk of commission rates in this regard is not considered substantial. The company is subject to the risk of commission rates on its commission-related liabilities including term loans.

Currency risk

Currency risk resulting from fluctuations in the value of financial instruments due to changes in foreign exchange rates. The management monitors the volatility of foreign exchange rates and believes that the company is not subject to the risk of exchange rate change significantly except the Euro, since the official currency of the company is the Saudi riyal, which is the main currency that the company deals with and its price is currently fixed and by a small margin against the US dollar. The company also deals in Euro currency according to the prevailing exchange rates in the market, and the company also uses derivative financial instruments to reduce exchange rate risk.

Credit risk

Credit risk represents the inability of one party to meet its Liabilities, resulting in the other party incurring a financial loss. Financial instruments that may expose the company to debt concentration risks consist mainly of balances with banks, cash in the fund and debtors' accounts. The Company deposits its cash balances in several of financial institutions with high credit capabilities and embarks on a policy to reduce the size of its holdings deposited in each financial institution. The company does not believe that there is a significant risk of inefficiency from these financial institutions. The company does not believe that it is subject to debt risk in relation to debtors' accounts due to its client base directly or indirectly linked to government contracts.

Liquidity risk

The difficulties faced by the company are in providing funds to fulfill pledges related to financial instruments. The Company manages liquidity risk by ensuring that funds are available to meet any future Liabilities. The Company does not consider that it is subject to substantial liquidity risks.

Dividends distributing policy

As stipulated in the Article of Association, the distribution of profits depends on the amount of net profits achieved, their financial situation, the state of the market, the company's needs for reinvestment and monetary and capital requirements. The Board of Directors proposes at the end of each financial year to the General Assembly to distribute the company's net profits after all public expenses and other costs, including zakat, which are paid legally as follows:

1. Set a side (10%) From the net profits to form the company's statutory reserve, the General Assembly may decide to stop this sparing when the reserve reaches 30% of the paid-up capital.
2. The General Assembly may decide to form other reserves, to the extent that is in the company's interest or ensures that fixed profits are distributed as much as possible to shareholders. The association may also deduct from the net profits amounts to establish social institutions for the company's workers or to assist those which exist.
3. From the remainder after that, a percentage of not less than (5%) of the paid-up capital of the company shall be distributed to the shareholders.
4. Subject to the provisions stipulated in Article (20) of the company's Articles of Association, and Article (76) of the Companies Law, after the aforementioned, a percentage not exceeding 10% of the remainder shall be allocated to the Saudi Pottery Pipe Production Company Saudi Vittrified Clay Pipe Co.

- remuneration of the Board of Directors, provided that the entitlement of this remuneration is proportional to the number of sessions attended by the member.
5. The General Assembly shall decide to distribute interim dividends to its shareholders on a quarterly or semi-annual basis and may authorize the Board of Directors to do so by a decision of which is renewed annually.
 6. The shareholder shall be entitled to his share of the profits in accordance with the General Assembly resolution issued in this matter and the decision indicates the date of maturity and the date of distribution and the entitlement of the dividend stake of the shareholders registered in the shareholders' registers at the end of the specified day of maturity.
 7. Dividends to be distributed to shareholders, through banks, will be disbursed by depositing in their investment portfolios on the dates set by the Board of Directors.

Implemented and non-implemented provisions of the Corporate Governance Regulations, and justifications thereof

Disclosure of board members' bonuses and executive management

The remuneration policy for members of the board of directors and the committees emanating from the board and the executive management aims to define clear criteria for remuneration of members of the board of directors, its committees and senior executives considering the requirements of the companies' system and the rules and regulations of the Capital Market Authority. The policy also aims to attract individuals with a degree of competence, ability and talent to work in Board of Directors, committees and executive management by adopting incentive plans and programs for rewards that are linked to performance, which contribute to improving the company's performance and achieving the interests of its shareholders.

General Remunerations criteria:

The Remuneration and Nominations Committee is responsible for recommending to the Board the rewards of board members, committee members and senior executives of the company, in accordance with the approved criteria as follows:

- 1- The rewards should be commensurate with the company's activity and the skills needed to manage it.
2. Consider linking the changing portion of rewards to long-term performance.
- 3- The company takes into account the compatibility of the rewards with the company's strategy and objectives and with the size, nature and degree of risk.
- 4- The company takes into account the practices of other companies and what prevails in the labor market in determining rewards, while avoiding the resulting unjustified rise in rewards and compensation.
- 5- It is prepared in coordination with the Remuneration and Nominations Committee in relation to new appointments.
- 6- The rewards are determined by the level of the job, the tasks and responsibilities of the incumbent, the scientific qualifications, practical experience, skills and the level of performance.
- 7- The rewards should be fair and proportionate to the members' terms of reference and the actions and responsibilities performed and borne by the members of the Board of Directors or committees, in addition to the objectives set by the Board of Directors to be achieved during the fiscal year.

Saudi Pottery Pipe Production Company Saudi Vittrified Clay Pipe Co.

- 8- Taking into account the sector in which the company operates, its size and the experience of the members of the Board of Directors.
- 9- The reward should be reasonably sufficient to attract, motivate and retain competent board members.
- 10- The remuneration of members of the Board of Directors, its subsidiary committees and senior executives are disclosed in the annual report of the Board of Directors in accordance with the Corporate Governance Regulations.

Remuneration of board members and its subsidiary committees:

- 1- The board member is entitled to an annual bonus of SAR 200,000, for his membership of the Board and an attendance allowance for each meeting of SAR 3,000.
- 2- The member of the audit committee is entitled to an attendance allowance for each session of SAR 5,000.
- 3- A member of the Remuneration and Nominations Committee is entitled to an attendance allowance for each session of SAR 5,000.
- 4- The Remunerations and Nominations Committee recommends the remuneration of the members of the Executive Committee annually based on the performance, and the recommendation is made to the Board of Directors for approval.
